Why It's Worth Being Here?

• A space to study

Renovation? A noisy flatmate? A group project to prepare? Depending on your needs, find your spot in the quiet zone, use an Individual work cubicle or an Acoustic pod, or work in spaces designed for group discussions.
We offer approx. 300 study places, including 6 for people with special needs.

• Equipment at hand

The Library offers Self-check machines for borrowing on your own, scanners, printers, photocopiers, computer workstations for Users and specialist software.

• Relax and networking

Relaxation zones are waiting for you: take a breather between lectures, chat with friends, play board games or even read a book from our Fiction Library. Plus, free Wi-Fi – fast Eduroam.

• Coffee or tea?

We provide a kitchenette with a kettle and a microwave, as well as vending machines with coffee and snacks.

We're Waiting For You!

More Than Books

BG AGH

The door to the world of science is wide open from the first day of your studies!

Quick Start: A Strategic Five Minutes

1. Activate your Library account – go to the AGH Libraries Catalogue and log in. Your login and password are the same as for your email in the @student.agh.edu.pl domain.

2. mLegitymacja is the key – your mobile student ID also serves as your Library card.

3. A Library training awaits you on the UPeL platform – mandatory, but simple and useful!

What We Offer

- Circulation Desk and Open Stacks Area

Hundreds of textbooks you don't have to buy.

- Main Reading Room and specialist reading rooms

Study places, core textbooks, academic journals, daily press and other collections – e.g. standards, maps, patents.

- Self-Study Reading Room, Room under the Mural

Places to study and work with your own laptop and materials.

- Fiction Library and Legimi

Access to non-academic literature, too.

- Expert support

Qualified staff who share their knowledge and help – in person, online and by phone.

- Library book drop

Return books regardless of the Library's opening hours.
